Burn Brae Day Camp of Creative Arts Conditions of Enrollment

1. No refund will be made for the first five consecutive camp days of absence due to illness or accident. Beginning with the sixth camp day, a pro-rated refund will be made for each consecutive camp day the child is absent due to this illness. A doctor's certificate is required.
2. The camp is not responsible for the camper's equipment or personal belongings, while in transit or at camp, if lost or damage by fire, theft or otherwise. Please do not bring personal items from home.
3. The Director reserves the right to deny, cancel, sever or suspend the enrollment of a child deemed in the child's best interest, or if the child's physical or mental condition, conduct, influence or behavior is deemed unsatisfactory or detrimental to the best interests of the camp.
4. Parent(s) shall fully disclose in advance any pre-existing physical or mental illnesses, conditions or disabilities of the child. Parent(s) releases Burn Brae Day Camp of Creative Arts Inc. from any and all claims, causes, or liabilities and agrees to indemnify and hold Burn Brae Day Camp of Creative Arts Inc. harmless in connection with any damages sustained as a result of any such non-disclosure. Director shall be permitted access to medical or psychological information of such condition(s).
5. Our nurturing, professional staff will make every effort to assure each child's adjustment to the camping environment. Any pro-rated refunds for adjustment withdrawals will be considered after a two-week trial period.
6. Parent gives permission for the camp to use any photographs, slides and videotapes in which his/her child/children may appear for advertising and publicity purposes.
7. Parent gives permission for child/children to participate in off-premises camp activities and field trips. (Parents will be notified in advance of these events.)
